- 1 Investigation officer in charge of 3 men
- 1 Cultural group consisting of 10 musicians and actors
- 2 Club directors
- 1 Adviser, a Soviet General Staff Officer.

As a general rule, the district headquarters staff consists of 25 officers and 100 enlisted men. Staff personnel has the following means of transportation available to them: 3 passenger cars, 6 jeeps, 11 trucks, 2 motorcycles, and 10 horses. This estimate includes the pioneer teams which will be discussed below.

Each district is in charge of 3 AVH border guard battalions and in turn each battalion commands 4-7 companies. Each district headquarters has also under its immediate command a training company, a reserve company, and teams of pioneers.

b. The Pioneer Teams.

Directly subordinate to the district headquarters are 12 pioneer teams with 6 men in each team. It is the responsibility of these teams to inspect at regular intervals the mines already laid and the alarm system within the district area. Furthermore, they are to maintain in proper repair, watchtowers, wire entanglements, etc.

c. The Training Company.

The training company is made up as follows:

Company commander, assistant company commander, political officer, 2 clerks, 1 first sergeant, 4 platoons of trainees. Each platoon consists of 5 squads with 12 men in each, and each platoon has 6 instructors. The platoons are commanded by officers.

The trainees of this company receive basic infantry training including instructions in the handling of both the light and the heavy machine guns. Concurrently they also receive theoretical instruction and practical demonstration on border guard duties. They get intensive instruction on the range: they fire rifles, machine guns, hand grenades, anti-tank guns, etc.

d. The Reserve Company.

The reserve company is made up of the following:

1 company commander, 1 clerk, 1 first sergeant; 3 squads of riflemen, with 12 men in each, 2 squads of 12 men in each, armed with submachine guns.

The reserve company attached to the district headquarters and the reserve platoons attached to the battalions guard the barracks and supply the replacements in case of illness or other absences from duty in the regular units. Whenever there is a frontier incident, the reserve squads are immediately dispatched as reinforcements to the trouble spot by truck.
